Living Divani presents the new catalogues

Living Divani presents the new catalogue Next 2022. A tool that, through a selection of both refined and evocative images, shows different facets of the brand's style, thanks to the creativity of the photographer Tommaso Sartori and the delicate and eclectic approach of the Elisa Ossino Studio.

The first section develops in spaces that own all the beauty of a new-born place, open and full of future: the brand's latest proposals belong there like small apparitions, objects ready for the theatre of new life, enhanced by the clear presence of light.

The following chapter unveils atmospheres where beauty shines from the refinement of the products, the quality of the materials and the uniqueness of the combinations. The models recently introduced are exemplary and silent presences, defined by pure, almost classical lines, in a stylistic mix capable of astonishing and enchanting for the perfect harmony.
